Sri. M.S. Chauhan, Ad. for the petitioner,

Dated: Feb. 27, 2004

Hon'ble M.M. Ghildiyal, J.:

Heard Sri M.S. Chauhan, learned counsel for the applicant/ petitioner.

By the order dated 18th October 2003 this Court has directed the respondent no. 3 to decide the representation of the petitioner dated 09.05.2000 within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of certified copy of the order.

This contempt petition has been moved by the petitioner with a prayer to punish the respondent, as the respondent has not decided the Government, in respect of consideration on the representation, is not annexed alongwith the contempt petition, but counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the Government has decided the representation on 17.12.2003 and by deciding the representation, the Government has complied with the order passed by this Court.

Keeping in view of the aforesaid facts, the petitioner has remedy to challenge the order if he is not satisfied with the order passed by the Government.

With these directions, the Contempt Petition is dismissed.
